ADVERTISEMENT.

SUBSCRIPTIONS, Advertisements, and Intelligence for the Racing Calendar, are received and carefully attended to, at the Publisher's Office, No. 11, Hamilton-Street, Piccadilly; where the Books for 1773, 1774, 1775, 1776, 1777, 1778, and 1779, may be had; also complete sets of Heber's Books, with several odd Volumes of Cheney's.

The SPORTING CALENDAR For the YEAR 1772,

PUBLISHED by Messrs. TUTING and FAWCONER, both since deceased, having hitherto been distributed to but a few of the Subscribers; the rest of the Subscribers, and others, are hereby informed, that the same may be had of Mr. Weatherby, No. 11, Hamilton-Street, near Park-Lane, Piccadilly, London; to whom the Subscriptions for that year, and likewise the arrears for former years are desired to be paid.

To the CLERKS of COURSES.

THE Publisher requests the Clerks of Courses will be punctual in discharging their Bills, as he does not only lay out of the Money for advertizing in his own Paper, but is considerably in advance for insertions in the Newspapers, and is therefore under the necessity of acquainting them, that their Races will not in future be advertised in the Calendar, unless the Bills for former Years are paid.

AS many fatal Accidents happen by Riders' being thrown or jammed against the Posts, which are commonly square, and much larger than necessary, it is earnestly recommended to all Clerks of Courses, where new Posts are erected, to have them made round, of a light brittle wood, not above three inches in diameter, and two feet higher than usual; and where the old ones are suffered to remain, to have the edges taken off, and the bottom sawed nearly through, so that they may fall with any strong pressure.

READERS OF NEWSPAPERS.

THE general plan of a Newspaper is so universally understood, as to require but little explanation. Notwithstanding general professions, it is certainly a fact, that every new attempt is founded upon a hope of gain, and every effort to acquire that with reputation, is as certainly worthy of praise. Without wishing to depreciate the conduct of others, or to be lavish in commendation of their own, the PROPRIETORS of a new Evening Paper, entitled are desirous of submitting that Publication to the perusal of the Public in general. As they are at present, so they mean to continue, independent in their principles, and to keep the approbation of the Public as their grand object in view. Their own interest will of course direct their attention to the usual, and, in their opinion, the most essential contents of a Newspaper; but as they intend to introduce an article of intelligence, to be regularly continued upon a plan not attempted before, they think it necessary to be particular in this information, as not only the advertisements of Races will be found and best circulated therein; but under the title of SPORTING INTELLIGENCE; every public occurrence which takes place in that particular line, will be immediately registered in this paper as it happens, and be warranted authentic from the highest authority. They have also established a regular correspondence with intelligent people at PETERSBURGH and AMSTERDAM, from whom they expect to derive material assistance for their commercial and political departments. These, and other regulations of public utility, are recommended to the notice of the country gentlemen, and their countenance and encouragement solicited only as the general tenor of the paper shall continue to deserve it.

N. B. That nothing might be wanting which may, in every respect, recommend the ENGLISH CHRONICLE to the attention of the Public, the PROPRIETORS have adopted such arrangements with respect to the PARLIAMENTARY INTELLIGENCE for the present sessions, which is expected to be as important and interesting a one as any hitherto recorded in the annals of the country, as will enable them to deliver that species of information with more variety, precision, and authenticity, than any other Evening Publication now extant. In this, as in every occurrence which they shall undertake to submit to the Public, the most inviolable and unbiaſſed impartiality will be observed.

This paper will be served by the Clerks of the Roads at the Post-Office, and by the same methods as are usual with other papers.—In case of any neglect or disappointment, an application to the ENGLISH CHRONICLE OFFICE, No. 5, in Catherine-street, will remove every cause of complaint.—The paper is printed every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday.

Articles of Intelligence, and Advertisements, favourably received, and strictly attended to.

- III. Every horse, mare, or gelding, that runneth, is to start between the hours of one and four in the afternoon; and to be allowed half an hour between each heat to rub.
- IV. Every horse, mare, or gelding, that runneth on the wrong side of the posts or flags, or is distanced in any of the heats, shall have no share of the said plate, nor be suffered to run any more.
- V. The horse, mare, or gelding, that winneth any two heats, winneth the plate; but if three several horses, mares, or geldings, win each of them a heat, then those three, and only they, to run a fourth heat; and the horse, mare, or gelding, that winneth the fourth heat, shall have the plate.

* By a late order, this is altered to ONE HEAT.

And in case any horse, mare, or gelding, shall be then, or after, proved to be above the age of six years the grass before, the owner or owners of such horse, mare, or gelding, shall be made incapable of ever running for any of the King's plates hereafter.
- VII. As many of the riders as shall cross, jostle, or strike, or use any other foul play, as shall be judged by such person or persons as shall be appointed by the master of the horse, such rider shall be made incapable of ever riding any horse, mare, or gelding, for any of His Majesty's plates hereafter; and such owners shall have no benefit of that plate; but such owners may be permitted to run any horse, mare, or gelding, for any other of His Majesty's free plates hereafter.
- VIII. Every rider, shall, immediately after each heat be run, be obliged to come to the ending-post, with his horse, mare, or gelding, then and there to alight, and not before, and there to weigh to the satisfaction of the judges appointed for that purpose.
- IX. And in case of neglect or refusal thereof, such winners and riders shall be immediately declared incapable of running or riding any more for this or any of His Majesty's plates hereafter.
- X. And in case any difference shall arise relating to their ages, or in their running, or to these His Majesty's orders, &c. the same to be determined by such person or persons, who shall be appointed by the aforesaid master of the horse.

ards. June annually. One new Steward to be appointed every year on the third day of June, by the Steward who quits on that day, subject to the approbation of the members of the Jockey Club then present.

The first and second vacancy of the three Stewards now named, are to be settled by drawing lots; and ever afterwards, the senior Steward is to quit his office on the third of June annually.

That the three Stewards, or any two of them,
shall be vested with full power to their power, &c. make such regulations as they think proper, in regard to the exercise-ground, and the course.

That the three Stewards concurring, shall have it in their power to appoint such person or persons as they may chuse to keep the coffee-house, matchbook, receive the stakes, and to collect the entrance money, and all other funds belonging to the Jockey Club.

The

The Stewards are to be responsible to the Jockey Club for all the money collected, as belonging to the Club.

The Stewards shall have it in their power to fix the hours of starting for each match, &c. but they shall be obliged to fix those hours of starting by eight o'clock in the evening preceding the day of running.

The accounts are to be produced by the Stewards annually, on the third of June.

That in case any gentleman who keeps running horses, has cause to complain of any feeder, rider, groom, boy, or other person employed by him in, or intrusted with the knowledge of trials, of having discovered them directly or indirectly, by betting, or wilfully in any other way (unless allowed so to do by his master;) or if any person as aforesaid, living with any gentleman, shall be discovered in watching trials himself, or procuring other persons so to do, or by any unfair means whatsoever endeavouring to discover trials; on such complaint being carried to any one of the Stewards, that Steward is to summon a general Jockey Club meeting, as soon as convenient; which meeting is to appoint a committee of three members to examine into the accusation; and in case they shall be of opinion that the person or persons is or are guilty of it, then the person so found guilty shall be dismissed from the service of his master, and the said persons shall not be employed by any member of the Jockey Club in any capacity whatsoever; nor shall any horse, &c. fed, or rode by him or them, or in the management of which he or they are concerned, be suffered to start for plate, match, or subscription. And the names of the persons found guilty of these offences, shall be exposed in the Racing Calendar; and inserted in a paper to be fixed up in the coffee-room at Newmarket.

Punishment for watching, or discovering trials.

That

That a copy of all the stakes to be made for matches, subscriptions, and sweepstakes, and the day and hour of shewing, or entering, shall be fairly wrote out, and fixed up by the order of the Stewards, on the side of the Chimney-piece at each end of the coffee-room, on the Sunday evening before each meeting; to continue there each day of the meeting, as notice for staking, shewing, or entering, and no other shall be insisted upon.

Notice of staking, shewing, and entering.
A Day Book shall be kept by the person appointed by the Stewards, and continue in the coffee-room, in which shall be entered an account of all matches, subscriptions, and sweepstakes, to be run for each day, within that meeting; and as the different stakes are made, the payments shall be marked to the names of the persons so paying.

Entry of stakes as made.
All stakes shall be made in cash, bank-bills, bank-post bills, properly indorsed, bankers notes payable to bearer, or bankers notes payable to order, also properly indorsed; and not otherwise, without the consent of the party or parties present concerned in the match, subscription, or sweepstakes, on whose account such stakes are made.

Stakes how to be made;
All stakes for matches, subscriptions, and sweepstakes, shall be made before starting for the same; and in default thereof by any person, he shall forfeit in like manner, as if he had not produced his colt, filly, horse, or mare, to start; and shall have no claim to the stake or stakes of the match, subscription, or sweepstakes, should his colt, filly, horse, or mare, have started and come first; and this to remain in full force as an established agreement of the Jockey Club, unless such person has has previously obtained the consent of the party or parties present, with whom he is engaged, to dispense with his making his stake as aforesaid.

All forfeits unpaid before starting for any match, subscription, or sweepstakes, shall be paid to the persons appointed by the Stewards to receive the same, at the coffee-room, before 12 o'clock at night of the day such forfeits are determined; and each person making default therein, shall forfeit and pay to the persons so appointed by the said Stewards, after the rate of five pounds for every hundred pounds so forfeited, which shall be disposed of by the said Stewards, towards such uses as they shall think fit.

And in order to prevent frauds, notice shall be given, that if any person make any bett or betts from signal or indication, after the race has been determined at the post, such person is not intitled to receive, or liable to pay the same; as such bett or betts are fraudulent, illegal, and totally void; and that if any servant belonging to a member of the society shall be found to have made or be engaged in the making any such bett or betts, he shall be dismissed his service, and no further employed by any member of this society.

Betts made from signal or indication.

That all forfeits or money paid on compromising any match or sweepstakes shall, bona fide, be declared and entered in the day-book, in order that all Betters may be put upon an equality with the persons who had the match or sweepstakes, and may thus be ascertained in what proportion they are to pay or receive.

room at Newmarket ; and no persons to be deemed confederates, who do not subscribe this article as such.

That all disputes relative to racing at Newmarket shall, for the future, be determined by the three Stewards, and two referees to be chosen by the parties concerned. If there should only be two Stewards present, they are to fix upon a third person in lieu of the absent Steward.

Disputes how to be determined.

That if for any sweepstakes or subscription, the two first horses shall come in so near together, that the judge shall not be able to decide which won, those two horses shall run for such prize over again, after the last match on the same day ; the other horses which started for such sweepstakes or subscription, shall be deemed losers, and entitled to their respective places, as if the race had been finally determined the first time.

When the judge cannot decide a sweepstakes, or subscription, the two first horses to run over again.

That all betts determined by one event shall be subject (as before agreed) to any compromise made by the principals, and paid in proportion to such compromise ; but that all double betts shall, for the future (to prevent the frequent disputes which have arisen) be considered as play or pay betts.

Single and double betts.

When any match or sweepstakes shall be made, and no particular weight specified, the horses, &c. shall carry eight stone, seven pounds each. And if any weight is given, the highest weight is, by this resolution, fixed at eight stone, seven pounds.

The weight 8st. 7lb. when not specified, and when weight is given, the highest 8st. 7lb.

No horse that is matched to run on the day of entrance, for any plate, &c. shall be obliged to shew and enter at the hour appointed, but shall shew and enter within an hour after his engagements are over, provided such horses, &c. be named at the usual time of entrance, which is to be between the hours of eleven and one, for all plates, subscriptions, and sweepstakes, where any entrance is required, and no other particular time specified.

That all betts depending between any two horses, either in match or sweepstakes, are null and void, if those horses become the property of one and the same person, or his avowed confederate, subsequent to the betts being made

Betts between any two horses, &c. which shall become the property of the same persons void.

That the Cup be challenged for on the Monday in the First Spring Meeting, and the horses named for it declared at six o'clock on the Saturday evening of the said meeting.

How to challenge for the Cup

That the Whip be challenged for on the Monday or Tuesday in the Second Spring, or Second October Meeting, and the acceptance signified, or the Whip resigned, before the end of the same Meeting.

before eight o'clock on the evening preceding the engagement, to the Keeper of the Match Book, or either of the Stewards, shall be entitled to five per Cent. and no more of the forfeit.

That after the 1st of June, 1779, no person shall start a horse for any match, sweepstakes, or subscription; such person not having paid his stake of the value of twenty-five pounds or upwards, due to the winner of any former race wherein he was engaged, provided any of the parties concerned shall object to his starting, and notify his dissent to the Clerk of the Course one hour before the time appointed for.

RULES for MATCHING and FIGHT- ING of COCKS in London, which have been in Practice ever since the Reign of King Charles II.

TO begin the same by fighting the lighter pair of cocks (which fall in match) first, proceeding upwards to the end; that every lighter pair may fight earlier than those that are heavier.

In matching (with relation to the battles) it is a rule always in London, That after the cocks of the main are weighed, the match-bills are compared.

THAT every pair of dead, or equal weight, are separated, and fight against others; provided that it appears that the main can be enlarged, by adding thereto, either one battle or more thereby.

Much may be said of Paymaster's size and bone, but being on the Turf so lately, cannot be out of memory of those to whom this solicits favour.

JOHN WALKER'S
PATENT SADDLES.

IN a country where the manly exercise of riding is so predominant, an attempt to render it more pleasing and useful will, doubtless, be generally countenanced. Of this kind the Inventor humbly presumes his New Invention will be ranked, as in them both these essential properties are happily united; they not only preserve an elegance and neatness, equal with the most approved productions of that kind, but are particularly adapted to the ease both of man and horse, by a well regulated combination of elasticity, by which also the rider is enabled to form a better and firmer seat on them. The approbation which experience has given, forms a proof of their utility, and will, he hopes, incline those Gentlemen who have not seen them to have ocular demonstration, and their properties explained at John and Thomas Walkers, near Lord Coventry's, Piccadilly; and at their shop also at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, where every other branch of Sadlery, for home consumption and exportation, may be had. Side Saddles, on the same principle, have been greatly approved.

 No. 246, Oxford Street, the corner of Park Street, London.

RETURNS his grateful thanks to the Nobility and Public for the repeated favours he daily receives, and respectfully acquaints them, that his Girths are sold no where through the three kingdoms without his name stamp on each Girth, and that the Sadler near Brook Street, who stamps his own name on the Girths he sells, and tells Gentlemen he has set up a Manufactory against Knibbs, is a base imposition; the Girths he stamps with his name are manufactured in the Low Countries, and bought at a cheap rate, and have none of the qualities of the real patent Spring Girths manufactured by Knibbs only. A large assortment of Sadlery and Harness always ready, where gentlemen may be furnished at an hours notice for home or abroad, at 30 per cent. lower than any warehouse in London, by their most humble Servant.

VAL WAREHAM.

RETURNS his grateful Thanks to Noblemen and Gentlemen, who have subscribed for his late invented GREYHOUND SLIPS, and respectfully acquaints them, and all other Noblemen and Gentlemen Courfers, that they are sold by him at 10s. 6d. a Pair, at High House, near Rougham, Norfolk; the Ram Inn, Newmarket; and at Mr. Weatherby's, No. 11, Hamilton-street, Piccadilly, London, where Subscriptions and Orders are received, and carefully attended to.

These SLIPS were used, and met with general Approbation, at the Courting Meetings at Swaffham, in Norfolk: They are calculated either to restrain or to slip the Greyhounds with great Facility, and without leaving any Thing upon their Necks, and so as that no Advantage can be given to either, in starting, which renders them Useful and Satisfactory on all Occasions, and particularly so, in Matches and Trials.

Though he cannot boast of the Authority of a Patent, he flatters himself, that the Merit of the Invention, will insure him the sole Benefit thereof, and that Noblemen and Gentlemen, will not encourage Imitators, while he is able to serve them.
